Montana Lakefront Resort Community Publishes Second Magazine

April, 2010 - Newport Beach, CA — The Kootenai, a private residential enclave on Montana's Swan Lake that has been an exclusive recreational retreat for over 100 years, has just published its second edition of its private label magazine - The Kootenai Experience.

The 52-page magazine written and designed by InterCom provides an intimate look at the new and restored cabin homes, amenities and lifestyle as well as the rich history of one of the Pacific Northwest's national treasures.

InterCommunicationsInc is a full-service branding, marketing and communications company with 30 years of experience in the leisure, lifestyle and real estate industries, including primary homes, second homes in resort communities, retail centers and mixed-use business centers.
